Conn's, Inc. Reports December 2015 Sales and Delinquency Data

THE WOODLANDS, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Conn's, Inc. (NASDAQ:CONN), a specialty retailer of furniture, mattresses, home appliances, consumer electronics and provider of consumer credit, today reported $137.5 million in total retail net sales for the month ended December 31, 2015, a 2.5% increase compared to the same prior year period.

The following table presents the Company's percentage change in same store sales for the month ended December 31, 2015, compared to the same prior-year periods, and the 60-plus day delinquency rate as of December 31, 2015:

ÂÂÂ	Â
	Month Ended December 31, 2015
Same store sales % change (as compared to the same prior-year period):
Furniture and mattress	13.9%
Home appliance	(1.3)
Consumer electronic	(20.5)
Home office	(15.9)
Other	(20.1)
Product sales	(5.9)
Repair service agreement commissions	(3.7)
Total net sales	(5.6)%
	Â
	As of December 31, 2015
60-plus day delinquency rate	9.9%

Norm Miller, Conn's Chief Executive Officer and President, commented, "Greater than 60-day delinquency was 9.9% as of December 31, 2015, compared to 9.7% as of December 31, 2014. The delinquency rate decreased 20 basis points from November 30, 2015 to December 31, 2015. Delinquency rates were negatively affected by slowing portfolio growth year-over-year."

"Excluding the impact of our decision to exit video game products, digital cameras, and certain tablets, same store sales for December increased 1.8%. During the month, we continued to see solid performance of our expanded furniture assortment. Same store unit sales increased in the furniture and mattress category, partially offset by lower average selling prices on enhanced seasonal promotional activity. Home appliances during the month reflected the impact of increased competitive activity in lower-end opening price point products with lower same store average selling prices, partly offset by higher unit sales. We believe the overall sales trend in December was also affected by an expanded promotional time frame in the marketplace during November, which likely pulled sales forward into that month. Sales performance continued to be softer in our markets with greater oil industry concentration, consistent with the relative performance experienced since October 2015."

For the month of December, excluding the impact from video game products and digital cameras, same store sales for consumer electronics decreased by 5.8%. Excluding the impact from tablets, same store sales for home office decreased 1.3% due to lower same store unit sales, partially offset by higher average selling prices."

All of the above December 31, 2015 amounts are preliminary estimates and are subject to change upon completion of the Company's financial statement closing process. The Company has provided monthly same store sales, portfolio balance and 60-plus day delinquency rate data for all monthly periods since and including February 2012 on its investor relations website at ir.conns.com.

Conn's expects to release January sales and delinquency data on February 9, 2016.
