

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CONN'S, INC. ANNOUNCES FILING OF PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT AND RIGHTS OFFERING PRICING

BEAUMONT, TEXAS (November 8, 2010) — Conn's, Inc. (NASDAQ/NM: CONN), a specialty retailer of consumer electronics, home appliances, furniture, mattresses, computers and lawn and garden products today announced that it has filed the prospectus supplement relating to its previously disclosed common stock rights offering with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In connection with the previously announced rights offering, the Company has distributed one transferable subscription right for each share of common stock owned as of 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on November 1, 2010, the record date for the rights offering. Each subscription right represents the right to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, at a subscription price of $2.70 per share, and consists of a basic subscription privilege, which entitles the holder to purchase .41155 shares per right, and an oversubscription privilege.

The rights offering will expire on November 23, 2010, at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, unless extended. The subscription rights have been admitted for trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "CONNRR" and can be traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market until 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on November 22, 2010, the last business day prior to the expiration date, unless the rights offering is extended. Other than subscription rights held by the Company's affiliates, the subscription rights will be freely transferable by holders until 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on November 22, 2010, the last business day preceding the expiration date, unless the rights offering is extended. Each holder of a right will be entitled to an oversubscription privilege to purchase any shares not purchased by other holders under their basic subscription privileges. If a holder exercises its basic subscription privilege in full and exercises its oversubscription privilege, the oversubscription rights will be allocated to such holder, subject to the pro ration provisions and certain other limitations described in the prospectus supplement.

The Company has not entered into a standby purchase agreement or similar agreement with respect to the purchase of any shares of its common stock in the rights offering. However, Stephens Inc. and The Stephens Group, LLC, and certain of their respective affiliates, which owned approximately 21.3% and 26.0%, respectively, of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date, have each indicated to the Company that it is their present intention to exercise their basic subscription rights and oversubscription rights in full.

The Company expects that the proceeds from the rights offering will be used, along with borrowings under its new and expanded debt facilities, to repay the outstanding balances under the Company's existing asset-backed securitization program. As previously announced, the Company plans to refinance its existing debt facilities and expects the refinancing will include an expanded asset based loan facility of up to $375 million, and a new $100 million senior secured term loan, with maturity dates in 2013 and 2014, respectively. Additionally, the Company expects after the completion of the proposed transactions to be better positioned to review its strategic business plan.

The Company reserves the right to cancel the rights offering at any time prior to the expiration date for any reason. Assuming the satisfaction of all conditions to closing, the Company expects to close the proposed transactions as soon as practicable after the expiration of the rights offering.

Stephens, Inc. has acted as a financial advisor to the Company in connection with the proposed transactions. Computershare Trust Company, N.A. will act as subscription agent and Georgeson Inc.
